Ahobila Mathas.

Claims to be treated as of the same rank as Parakala mathas & Totadri Matha. Some papers (uncertified copies) are shown by Mr. Gandachar to prove equal treatment in Srirangapatam & Melkote Temples. The Swamiji is said to intend visiting Bangalore next month. The Chief Complaint here seems to be that Uttaradi Mathas is placed in a higher class apart for 18 days Bhikshas.

The matter shd be decided very early. Please put up file.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

GPB—20,000—30-6-15

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

The following papers relate to the issue of a Rahadari in connection with the proposed tour in the State of the Swamigalu of Sri Ahobila Matha.

2. In his letter No.845 dated 24th November 1915 Mr. E. Kuppuswamy Iyengar, the General Agent to the Matha, intimated that the Swamigalu proposed to enter the State, via. Pathiamangalam, about the 1st week of January and requested that instructions may be issued to all Magisterial, Revenue and Police Officers to render necessary assistance and to show usual honours on the way.

3. The accompaniments of the Swamigalu and the insignia paraded by him are detailed below.

1. 4 Guns.
2. 1 Revolver
3. 4 Swords.
4. Piper set (4 men)
5. 1 Thiruchinnam.
6. 4 Umbrellas.
7. Silk Red colour five Kalasam ~~and~~
8. " White colour. -- 1
9. " Red laced. -- 1
10. Elephants 2. One which carries two big drums.

11. 1 Horse with drum.

12. 1 Camel.

13. Bullock with drum.

14. Suruttas 6.

15 ~~4~~ Marchal
15. Makarathoranam 1.

16. Silver sticks 2.

17. Chamaram 2.

18. Bullock bandies.

19. 3 Palanquins, one for Swamigalu and two for God.

20. 1 Palanquin made of elephan tusk.

21. Palanquin carriers. 32.

22. Bandymen. 11.

23. Elephant tusker. 2

24. " feeder. 2

25. Dwaja Padam. 1

26. Horse keeper. 1

27. Camel driver. 1

28. Sepoys. 4

29. Cow feeder. 1

30. 30 Sree Vaishnava Brahmin servants and about 30 followers.

~~37~~ 5 Marchal

4. Items 4 to 18, 20 and 25 are of the nature of insignia and of these the more important ones are (7) silk umbrell red colour five Kalasams, (8) white silk umbrella, (9) red laced umbrella, (15) Makara Thoranam and (25 Dwaja Patam.

5. The ~~General~~ Agent ~~of the Mathe~~ has not been able to produce any proof that these insignia were authorized or that they were paraded in the State on any previous occasion. The only Rahadari issued by Government on a previous occasion (in 1843) merely directs that necessary assistance should be extended to the Swamigalu and does not detail the accompaniments of the Swamigalu.

6. Simple Sweta Chatri without the addition of Panchakalasa, and Makarathorana are not by themselves exceptional honours. There are, a large number of Mathas in the State ~~who~~ are entitled to parade them, many of them of a status not comparable with that of the Ahobila Matha. There does not seem to be any special significance in the laced variety of the red umbrella. Dveja Patam has been explained by the Agent as merely a banner with a figure of Garuda of the pattern usually hung from Dvaja Stambha of temples and there does not seem to be any objection to allow the Swamigalu to display these insignia.

7. The case is slightly different as regards the umbrella with Panchakalasam. It is to be noted that it is not of the white variety which is considered to be a royal insignia and granted o ly to the highest Mathas. There seems to be little doubt that the Swamigalu has been actually using such an umbrella in his tour in British India and the Matha appears to be of sufficient standing to permit the parade of this honour also, during the Matha's tour in the State.

8. Permission may accordingly be granted to the Swamigalu to display all the insignia mentioned in the application and a Rahadari in the usual terms may be issued.

Draft.

"Regarding Rahadari for display of insignia by Ahobila Mutt in the Province - kindly wire if Uttaradi and Sivaganga Mutts are privileged to display silk white Umbrella with Kalasam and where Ahobila Matt Swami is at present"

From the Rahadari issued to Sri Uttaradi Mutt Swami in 1915 it is seen that this ~~matt~~ insignia is not included among the items of Birudus to be paraded by the Swamigalu.
